

be ready to go to sea, with the words which have been chosen as the motto of the ship which now bears his name:

"We are ready now, Sir."

The destroyer TAUSSIG, a unit of the Pacific Fleet, is named in honor of his father, Rear Admiral Edward D. Taussig.

The J. K. TAUSSIG recently completed her shakedown cruise and has joined the Destroyer Force of the Atlantic Fleet.

Commanding Officer is LCDR R. S. Moore, USN, who was commissioned as Ensign in June, 1943. He assumed command of the J. K. TAUSSIG in 1957.

(Continued on page 12)

LCDR R. S. Moore
USS J. K. TAUSSIG

Commanders, Escort Squadrons

Four of the seven destroyers in Task Force 66 are members of Escort Squadron FOURTEEN. The other three are from Escort Squadron TEN.

CAPT W. E. Kuntz, USN, ComCortRon FOURTEEN, is embarked in USS VAN VOORHIS, and CDR C. A. Sander, USN, ComCortRon TEN, is embarked in USS DEALEY.

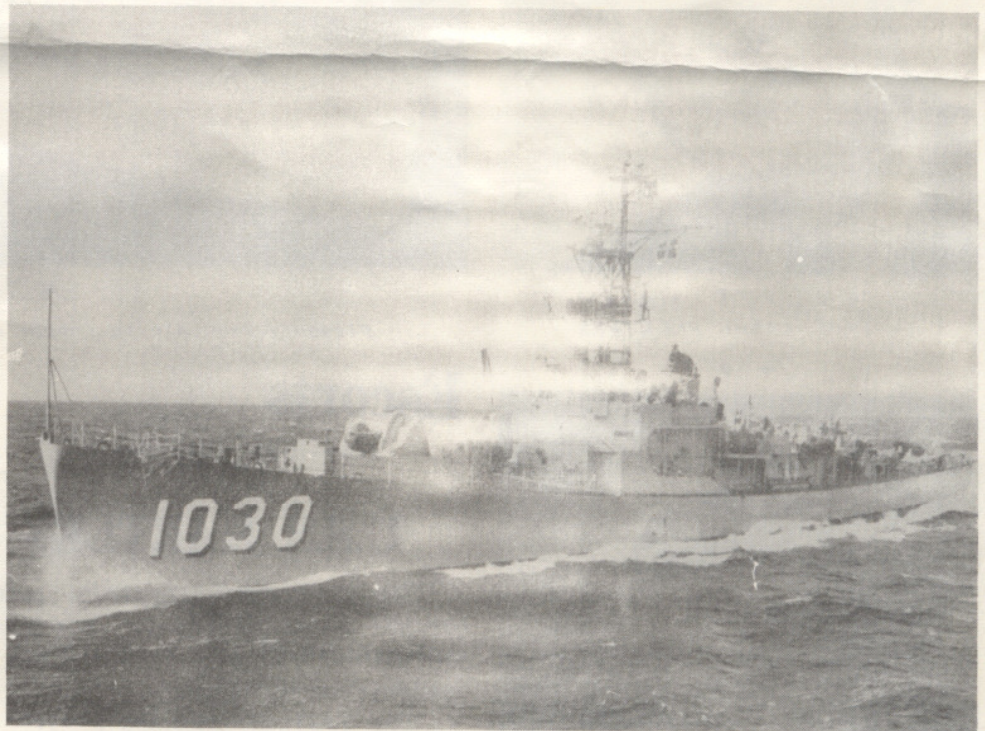

CAPT Kuntz, a 1939 graduate of the Naval Academy, has served as Officer-in-Charge of the Pacific Fleet Radar School and has held

(Continued on page 12)

USS LEIFER (DE-1022)

She has an all-weather structure

USS J. V. TAUSSIG (DE-1030)

Her Motto: "We are ready now, Sir."

Got Your '58 Cruisebook Yet?